Celebrate with us as the Colorado Veterinary Medical Foundation recognizes three Colorado pets and two humans with achievement awards in these categories:

Hero — Awarded to an animal that has saved a life or prevented an injury.

Human-Animal Bond — Awarded to an animal that demonstrates the bond between pets and humans.

Service — Awarded to an outstanding service or companion animal.

Human Hero — Recognizes an individual who has made a notable contribution to the health and welfare of animals in Colorado.

Youth Animal Advocate — Recognizes the efforts of a Colorado youth (age 17 or younger) who has made a notable contribution to the health and welfare of animals.

Using this form, please nominate any animal or human that you feel exemplifies an award category. The nominee must be living when this form is submitted, with the exception of the heroes awards. The nomination deadline for the 2008 awards is Friday, August 15, 2008. Contact the CVMF office for additional forms or download a copy of the form at www.colovma.org. Nominations received after August 15, 2008, will be considered for the next year's award. Prior award nominees may be nominated again.
